Panel member certificate

To whom it may concern,

This letter certifies that Raffaele Cucuzza is a serving Associate Editor member of the expert Editorial Panel of the ICE journal Bridge Engineering

Please see Bridge Engineering - About the journal \(icevirtuallibrary.com\) for further information.

Panel members are expected to encourage submissions to the journal; promote the journal to members of the community; and help managing the peer review process. This process safeguards the high technical quality of our journals and our Associate Editor's contribution to it is greatly appreciated.

Kind regards,

Kirsten Buchanan
