Dear Sara Cravero, Francesco Strada, Isabella Lami and Andrea Bottino,

We are pleased to inform you that your paper

Learning sustainability by making games. The experience of a challenge as a novel approach for Education for Sustainable Development has been selected as best paper award candidate. The final decision will be made during the conference by the best paper committee based on your presentation and Q&A. The award will be announced and conferred during the closing session.

Best Regards,
